DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 05/23/08 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement filed 05/23/08 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(3) because it does not include a concise explanation of the relevance, as it is presently understood by the individual designated in 37 CFR 1.56(c) most knowledgeable about the content of the information, of each patent listed that is not in the English language. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 13, 16, 17, 20, 27, 30, 31, 34, 36-38 and 40-43 are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wang, US Patent 6,073,581.

6. Wang discloses a treat ball comprising a spheroidal outside (Figure 1), an interior compartment (Figure 2) with a first aperture (33, 43) on the outer extent of a space offset from the center location within the treat ball in which a removable dome-shaped outer surface cap (26) is removably retained and a second aperture (14).

7. Regarding claims 41 and 42, Wang discloses a dimension of the space spaced apart from the aperture (i.e. the area bounded by 34, 44 and 37, 47) being parallel to the plane in which the aperture is located is greater than the maximum dimension of the aperture (34, 44).

8. Regarding claims 40, 20 and 17, Wang discloses a wall comprised of two flaps (37, 47) separating the aperture and the interior compartment having an opening (40, 51) for moving treats between the interior compartment and the aperture, wherein the wall includes a funnel section (i.e. the opening functions as a funnel as it constricts the area through which the treats may pass).

9. Regarding claim 30, Wang discloses a lip (34, 44) at a perimeter of the aperture and the cap being removably retained within the aperture by overlaying a portion of the outer (circumferential) surface of the cap.

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 15 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wang as applied to Claim 13 and further in view of McEvoy, IE 82913.

12. Wang discloses the invention with the exception of a sinuous raised feature on the outside surface as taught by McEvoy (16). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to use the sinuous raised feature as taught by McEvoy with the apparatus of Wang so as to provide a more varied and interesting rolling pattern for the ball.

13. Claims 13, 19, 31 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jager, US 2004/0244719 in view of Rucker, US Patent 6,634,318.

14. Jager discloses a treat ball comprising a generally spheroid outside surface (Figure 6) having an interior compartment and an aperture (66). However, Jager does not disclose the use of a removable edible cap. Rucker teaches the use of an edible cap (400) for insertion into an aperture in a treat dispensing apparatus so as to allow for longer enjoyment of the apparatus. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use the cap as taught by Rucker with the apparatus of Jager so as to prolong the time before the animal is able to access the treats thereby increasing the enjoyability of the apparatus.

Conclusion
